MONDAY MORNING OCT 19, 1863

By Telegraph.

This morning we are very able to be glad to report the utter and overwhelming defeat of Vallandigham, in the noble Buckeye State Brough is elected by a majority of 60 000 without counting the votes of soldiers, who of course would never support a rebel, banished from his own State because of his distinct and mischievous treason His deserved defeat ought to be a warning to those Northern traitors, as well as to those professed Union men —some of them the President's office holders and personal friends—who could not see "anything to blame much in his course" and rather on the whole preferred his election to that of an abolitionist

Pennsylvania, too is all right There is very little sympathy just now in the North for the rebellion, the Loyal States have this fall moved in one grand, unbroken procession "keeping step only to the music of the Union."

Popular Enthusiasm

The masses of the people, left to the exercise of their own judgment, which naturally always governs them, stand fast and firmly by the Government, in this its life and death struggle for national existence and are disposed to remain unwavering to the end But political managers, having personal ends to accomplish, still persist in endeavoring to mislead, and by keeping alive old party animosities, are doing too much that tends to weaken the earnest popular zeal which the country needs and must have, in order to secure the success of the war Indeed, in this way, perhaps unintentionally but certainly very effectually, they are giving aid to the rebellion, and reviving the hopes of its leaders, who have repeatedly stated of late, that as all expectation of foreign intervention has utterly failed, their last and only chance depends upon a divided sentiment at the North Such encouragement to the rebellion is deeply to be regretted, and most decidedly to be condemned. Issues, merely political at this time are grossly out of place, and fearfully destructive of the public welfare They should be repudiated by every patriot the mean and narrow minded men, who are seeking supremacy in party councils and political management, at a time when wise and honest statesmanship is so greatly needed, ought to be utterly discarded and taught that their petty schemes for personal advancement and their selfish dictation will find no sympathy among the loyal people of the nation The sole object worthy of consideration is the crushing of the rebellion, and he is no patriot, who for the sake of furthering his political fortunes, or to secure party ascendancy, diverts the popular mind from this momentous and transcendant issue Keeping this in view, all who love the Union can unite and work together for the sake of the Union, but if we are to continue to see, as we have seen, men who profess loyalty, acting as though they thought the life of the nation was of no consequence unless they could drive and control a faction, made up of a few personal and family adherents, we shall suffer by the division of popular sentiment, and the warm loyal enthusiasm of the people will be chilled and become inactive We ought to be independent of all such influences, and by our votes, our words and all our actions prove that we are doing what we believe will most fully and successfully sustain the Government in the present solemn emergency The heart of the people is right, it must be kept true and faithful, in spite of the misguided or conceited course of politicians and office holders, whose principal regard for the Government seems to grow out of the fact that it furnishes them a support The alleged faults of the Administration, or the blunders and unfitness even of its servants, afford no excuse for disloyalty, for the rebellion is a far greater evil than all these, and we regard it as treason, because of those, to organize and make effective at this time, an opposition to the Government, which is endeavoring with all the means at its command, to save the country from impending ruin. The efforts of all who do not wish the rebellion to succeed, should be directed to the consolidation and strengthening of public sentiment—to the suppression of every thing which can endanger popular unity and enthusiasm for the war, upon which now rests our only hope Deprived of these, by the action either of the friends of treason on one side, or of unprincipled and selfish politicians on the other, the power of the Government must be weakened and the day of peace and order postponed while sustained by them, the hands of the Administration will be so held up and strengthened, that it will be enabled to do its duty, with an efficiency which shall destroy utterly every semblance of treason, and make "the Stars and Stripes" again the emblem of a powerful and united country

NEW —Latest term for marriage in Washoe, "Consolidation" Thus, Eliza Walker and Tom Belcher consolidated on Sunday last They will soon incorporate and commence the issue of stock.

It was rumored that England had proposed that the Russian title to Poland should be ignored

THE KEYS OF MEXICO —Paris letters inform us that the silver keys of the City of Mexico, which were received sometime ago by the Emperor Napoleon are just now the subject of no little satire among the wits of Paris It has been recently discovered, people insist that the keys were manufactured some eighteen months ago in Paris, after a pattern submitted to the Emperor and Empress for their approval, and that they were sent to General Forey, who received them from the Mexicans, to whom they were lent and then duly returned them to the Emperor at Vichy They are now in a military museum with the Mexican guns presented to the Prince Imperial and are said to bear no marks of antiquity It is hinted that the guns also were manufactured in Paris after patterns approved by the Emperor

WASHINGTON, Oct 9—Gen Sherman commanding the 15th Army Corps reports to headquarters that many of the best inhabitants of Mississippi are now clamoring for peace on terms acceptable [illegible] who do not aim at the destruction of that part of the United States He thinks two thirds of the Federal army would be required to visit the interior of the State

CINCINNATI, Oct 10—A guerrilla band entered Greensburg, Ky, burned half of the town and stole considerable money and movable property The squad of Federal soldiers in the town was attacked, and eight killed and several wounded Guerrillas are reported on the Nashville road Fears are entertained that Gallatin will be attacked Reports prevail of an engagement and Federal success at Lebanon, Ky No particulars

WASHINGTON, Oct 14—A letter from headquarters Army of the Potomac says for two days past the enemy have been concentrating heavy forces at Madison Court House Friday night and Saturday morning they moved out of town in a northeasterly direction Divisions of infantry and large bodies of cavalry and considerable artillery were occasionally seen by our signal men The object of the movement could not be determined Reports from front represent early in the morning a cavalry brigade attempted to reconnoitre on the South end of the Rapidan where they were met by a large body of cavalry A fight ensued and continued an hour when our troops fell back on their infantry supports After another severe contest the infantry finally gave way, a considerable number being captured A detachment of cavalry then dashed upon the enemy and recaptured nearly all the prisoners taken Our entire force fell back towards Culpepper, skirmishing on the way, and contesting every foot of the ground Heavy firing this afternoon indicates the contest resumed The signal station on the top of Thoroughfare Mountains was nearly cut off but the entire party with the property escaped From appearances generally believed the main body of Hill's corps passed from left to right along our front pursuing obscure routes near the Blue Ridge intending to make demonstrations there

Should the rebel movement be simply a ruse to cover a heavy attack on our front we are prepared, as ground has been cleared and everything calculated [illegible] Hill's advance will probably commence moving on Thursday from Madison Court House, and by this time are between Gordonsville Fork and Asthbem river

NEW YORK, Oct 11th—The Times Washington dispatch says a letter from an officer in Steele's Arkansas expedition, dated Little Rock, Sept 30th, states that deserters from Price's army are coming into our lines by hundreds and enlisting in our army Guerrillas still continue operations but with diminished success Several gangs have already thrown down their arms and returned to peaceful pursuits

Second Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Oct 13—Gen Milroy has been exonerated from all charges preferred against him

The Evening Star says there has been some very skillful manoeuvring in which General Mead, checkmated his astute adversary without loss of any sort and by which he placed himself on the other side of Jordan, and in a position in which he can and is prepared to accept battle He seems to have considerably bothered the rebels, who do not seem inclined to fight unless with Indian like advantage The change of position was made by our army without the slightest confusion Everything that was left behind was destroyed, and would not make a cart load altogether

The loss in Gen Gregg's division of cavalry is said to be severe The 13th and 14th Pennsylvania and 10th New York suffered most. Sunday night our forces crossed the Rappahannock Monday morning two corps re-crossed, and drove the enemy to Brandy Station, with severe loss in killed wounded and prisoners on rebel side They then received orders to fall back, which they did in good order

ST JOHNS N F, Oct 13—The Africa from Liverpool, the 3d and Queenstown the 4th has arrived

The news of the defeat of Rosecrans caused considerable sensation and a rise in the Confederate loan of five per cent but the advance was not maintained and it closed at 30 per cent discount

The Times thinks Rosecrans was defeated by superior strategy and says It is evident that the Federal troops contested the field obstinately rallied when broken formed again and renewed the engagement repeatedly They seem to have done all that bravery and determination could effect but the greater skill of the Confederate Generals combined with their forces made the attack successful

WHO WILL TAKE THE LEAD?—Mr Marshall the milkman authorizes us to say that he will give one hundred and fifty dollars toward the filling up of the many mud holes which abound on Front street, from the Court House south to the Penitentiary of the city if the property holders will give the balance of the amount necessary to defray the cost of repairs Some one of the residents in the neighborhood mentioned should take the matter in hand and endeavor to raise a sum by subscription or otherwise, to be devoted to the proposed improvement, so that the truly liberal offer of Mr Marshall may not be lost to the City in general and Front street in particular, for the want of a little public spirit among those most to be benefited in case the street is made passable

THE MEXICAN WAR UNPOPULAR IN FRANCE Paris correspondence of 20th August, in the London Daily News, says

The Emperor Napoleon is said to have told Marshal (then plain General) Forey, when he was about to start for Mexico, that he was undertaking the most perilous affair of his life, and I believe that it will prove the most disastrous event of this reign Its unpopularity is widespread and invincible Nothing appears to render it palatable to the country Wrap it up in glowing appeals to the populace, set it ablaze with rockets and Bengal lights, promise untold riches from its mines, dress up the subject in any way you like, the people, to use a common phrase, won't have it I for one utterly refuse to believe that the Mexican question forms a part of any vast scheme in the teeming brain of the French Emperor I look upon the Mexican expedition as a solitary fact—one of the many desperate and reckless throws of the political dice which we have witnessed, and probably shall yet witness during this adventurous reign, and I anticipate that each new phase of the "occupation" will be marked by new and increasing difficulties For instance, here is the blockade question Already we learn the seizure of an English ship—the Caroline Goodyear—by the French steam frigate Panama. The complications which have arisen between us and our American cousins are at hand to show us how great are the risks of ill blood run in these questions of blockade

BERDAN'S SHARPSHOOTERS —The First and Second United States Sharpshooters are to be filled up to the maximum number at once from drafted men and veteran volunteers, who can do the shooting required by General Orders for this branch of the service, viz A "string" of five consecutive shots, not exceeding twenty five inches, with a "target" rifle distance, 200 yards at rest Or the same "string" with open sight, at 100 yards at rest The States from which the regiments are to be recruited are Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, New York Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota Drafted men from the above named States, who are desirous of joining this arm of the service, can do so by furnishing an affidavit made before a Justice of the Peace that they have made the target specified above, and presenting the same to the Commandant of the rendezvous on their arrival Men who have seen not less than nine months' service, and have received an honorable discharge, desiring to enlist in the Sharpshooters, can do so by applying to the Provost Marshal of their District, or to the authorities designated by the Governor, for recruiting veteran volunteers and furnishing the affidavit of shooting required above

THE TRUE LIFE —To imitate the highest examples, to do good in ways not usual to our rank of life, to make great exertions and sacrifices in the cause of religion and with a view to eternal happiness to determine without delay to reduce to practice whatever we applaud in theory, are modes of conduct which the world will generally condemn as romantic, but which are founded on the highest reason —Foster

Billous Fever Cured.
Portsmouth, Ohio, April 1, 1850.
MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co.—I have been, for years subject to attacks of BILIOUS FEVER; and sometimes I have been laid up for months, and my system left in a feeble state by the use of strong medicine, which was given to me by my physician.
I have been using DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS for some time. I find that I can break these attacks in a day or so, and escape entirely the fever. My daughter had an attack of DYSPEPSIA, which distressed her much; she could not eat scarcely anything without becoming nauseated at her stomach continually. Some time since she got and has been using DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and she now is like another being. I have found also that they are the most valuable Pills for breaking up Colds, Headache, Pains in the Side and Back. I would not be without them in my family.

☞ In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in Jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

Diarrhœa and Pain in the Bowels Cured.
CARTHAGE, O., Nov. 26, 1853.
DR. O. R. BAKER—Much Esteemed Friend: I have had a severe attack of Diarrhœa, attended with griping pains, and was reduced very low. I tried many different medicines, but all to no purpose, until I got a bottle of your PAIN PANACEA, and commenced its use. The first dose put a quietus on the griping pains, and I had not used two twenty-five cent bottles before I was entirely cured. I also recommended it to a friend, who was attacked with cramp colic, and suffering with excruciating pains, and three doses entirely cured him.

Oh! for some deep, secluded [illegible],
Where back out [illegible] may [illegible]
To sit down in a pot of grease—
No, no—I mean a grot of peace.

I'd choose a home by Erie's wave,
With not a [illegible] to mar the [illegible],
I'd by the cannon have a s[illegible]—
No—by the Shannon have a cot.

How fair that rocky pale around
That wide expanse to scan it o'er;
I love a sliver with a roar—
I mean, a river with a shore.

Romantic Erin's [illegible],
How sweet with [illegible] to the most
To watch the cooks [illegible]—
I mean, the [illegible] upon the coast.

'Twere sweet at moonlight's mystic hour,
To wander forth where [illegible],
And come upon a tipsy gent—
No no—I mean a gipsy's tent.

In that retirement [illegible] I would
Pursue some rustic industry
And make myself all time [illegible]—
No, no—I mean a tatting bee.

Or, sweet with your fond wife to sit
Outside your door at daylight's close
While she's hard hitting at your nose—
I mean, hard knitting at your h[illegible].

Perhaps on early cares you brood,
While sympathy her sweet face shows,
'Tis good to walk upon one's toes—
I mean, to talk upon one's woes.

Ah, how you watch that fairy shape,
A summer dress which goes adorn'd
Admiring much her laugh of scorn—
No, no—I mean, her scarf of lawn.

Exposure of the Tricks of Gamblers.—A writer in the Virginia City Bulletin exposes some of the tricks of gamblers with which that place seems to be now overflowing. He writes:

"High for Luck," "Black and Red" and the "Jack Game," are much the same, and are dealt out of a peculiar kind of a box with the cards back up. There is a little bar at each end of the back opening of said box to allow the top card to be drawn back, and then by a forward movement of the top card the friction of the same throws out the second card instead of the top one. Then, too, the backs of said cards are marked or stamped in the make, so that the dealer can thereby read every card, and so in dealing he takes either the top or second card, as may best suit their winning points. Reader, should you ever step into any one of the many public hells now defiantly thrown open in this city, just reach forward one of these boxes, and if you get hold of it, draw back the top card and then shove it forward, and you will then see the second card come easily out instead of the top one. And if you have ever seen a man win at any one of these games you may certainly set it down that he was a roping, smiling, fawning, robbing, cut throat "capper." The French gaming delegation, who play the above named games, have become so profound, that they can scarcely hold the second card back, for very often out pops the second card, as a matter of sympathy. Dice may be fair in themselves, but all dice games are dangerous to the inexperienced.

"Chuck-a-Luck" is played with three dice—each die having six faces—counting on each face from one up to six—and then on the table there is a lay out with numbers corresponding with the dice. You put down a dollar on each number, three aces, for instance, appear, you take up six dollars and pay the ace three of them. This illustrates the enormous profit which the table-keeper realizes when the game is played honestly, but then to make certain doubly sure the table-keeper keeps on hand many sets of dice, where he can conveniently change them to suit his players. These are false and loaded dice, but if dice are loaded with magnetic matter, they can be made doubly deceptive. For instance, to illustrate—say that you are betting on the six, the six has not appeared for many throws, you commence doubling on it, and if there are no sixes on the face of either dice it can never come.

The loaded dice, with magnetic matter, are generally used in the "Funnel Dice Game"—the "lay out" being similar to that of "Chuck-a-Luck." This game is played not only in this city, but often at public Fairs on the Pacific coast. It generally requires from three to five persons to play it. The dice are thrown through the funnel; one of the cappers draws the attention of the table-keeper for a moment, and while his head and eyes are for the moment turned away from the funnel, another capper taps the funnel so that all the bystanders can plainly see every dice and every number; then every capper comes down with his money, and in every way possible induce others to follow his example in this nice little sure thing. The gaping crowd are morally opposed to gambling and gamblers generally, yet their scruples are overcome, they reach down for their "bottom dollar," and invest in this infatuating entertainment. The heaviest face of the dice lay downwards when the dice and numbers are seen by the crowd, but the dice being charged with the negative matter and the battery being also charged with the negative, the table keeper, by a peculiar movement, brings the two negatives in contact. The dice are turned over, at which stage of the game the softest "greeny" is politely invited to raise the funnel—when, alas! beholds the dice not as they were—but changed! and the unsuspecting are thus fleeced out of their money—perhaps ruined.

These are the games openly and defiantly played here in Virginia, with bands of music to decoy the unsuspecting in these hells and graced with the presence of hurdy-gurdy morality and virtue—those Germanic queens of refined graces, who trip the fantastic toe, for the allurement of the unguarded.

The Reaction in Minnesota.—The Union men of Minnesota are likely to find themselves, in the coming election, very much in the condition of the man who wrenched himself terribly kicking at nothing. The probability is that they will have no opposition at all which the feeblest assault cannot overcome. From present appearances the Copperheads will not be able to keep together until November; and even should they do so, they will be so weak of leg that a sparrow's weight will prostrate them. Judge Welch, nominated by the State Convention as their candidate for Secretary of State has declined, preferring to serve his country in the army. Hugh Petzold has declined the nomination for Clerk of the Supreme Court, declaring that he cannot stand on a platform from which "the broad plank of unconditional loyalty" has been excluded. Peter Wilkin, for the same reason, has declined to stand for the position of State Treasurer. The Northwestern Democrat refuses to raise the ticket, in the hope that all the candidates will withdraw their names, and thus compel the recognition of the true sentiment of the party. The Faribault Statesman, one of the party organs, whose editor was a delegate to the State Convention, rejects both the platform and ticket, and urges that a new convention be called, in order that the party "may be rescued from the control of semi-traitors." In Rice county a large convention of loyal Democrats has adopted resolutions denouncing the nominations and the platform on which they were made, and calling on the nominees to withdraw in favor of unconditional loyal men. Thus, everywhere throughout the North-west, the reaction against the pro-slavery Democrats is sweeping forward, and the true Democrats are declaring their purpose to stand by the Government and the principles of liberty. In a fair poll not a single Western State could to day be carried by the Copperheads, notwithstanding the fact that from each tens of thousands of loyal voters have gone to the field.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Not Quite Ready.—Several weeks ago a lady in this city who is the mother of two or three good looking daughters, and who is an uncompromising Secessionist, was suddenly taken ill. Her symptoms were such that it was feared and believed that she would speedily pass from this mundane sphere. When in the evening all the members of the family were solemnly gathered around the bed, she was asked if there was anything whatever which she desired to have done before passing away which it was in the power of those around her to accomplish. She responded that it was the most earnest wish of her heart to see Ellen married and the "Union whipped," and then she could die happily. Ellen was engaged, and active measures were in progress for a grand wedding. But the wish of the dying mother could not be disregarded. The bridegroom was sent for, and of course "Barkus was willing." Without further waste of time a clergyman was sent for and the marriage ceremony performed. To the extent of the ability of the family, the dying wish was gratified—Ellen was married. But to "whip the Union," to conquer the armies of the North and establish the Southern Confederacy, was not within the power of the family. That portion of the wish could not be gratified. The lady recovered, and will be under the inconvenience of living a little longer before she can behold the Southern Confederacy established or the Union broken up, and thereby depart in peace to the spiritual world.—Sac. Union.

Dr J C Ayer. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache anybody can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D C
Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Dr Ayer: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

Honored Sir: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.
